ABSTRACT

This study, the first of its kind, examines the ability of the California Community College System to provide its students and faculty with Library and Learning Resources Programs and Services that are sufficient in quality, depth, and diversity to support each college's educational programs. The study covers a 7-year period from 1988-1989 through 1994-1995. The core organizational structures of the library and learning resources programs in the college system include the library, media centers (90%), learning assistance centers (56%), and computer centers (49%). The data included in the report is a compilation from 87 (83% of college system) participating colleges. Highlights of the report follow. Hours of access ranged from 51 to 77.5 hours per week, with an average of 63.81 hours. Weekend hours were limited to 4 to 10 hours per day, and often coincided with exam periods. Responding colleges requested interlibrary loans totaling 29,744 items, 34.74% of which were filled by community colleges. The colleges received 25,011 requests for items to be lent; 42% of the items were requested from within the system, and 53.92% were from outside of the California higher education community. In fiscal year 1996-97, library and media facilities were used by 18,916,471 persons, and the college system provided direct service to 12,778 persons from the community at large. (NB)

HIGHLIGHTS

The information provided in this publication was reported to the Chancellor's Office, California Community Colleges by eighty three percent (83%) of the college systems 106 Library and Learning Resources Deans and Directors for the Library Data Survey. The data was gathered by the Chancellor's Office in accordance with the California Code of Regulations, Title 5, Section 55841 which mandates that an annual report on the condition of libraries, including statistical information, shall be submitted by each district to the Chancellor's Office. The Annual Learning Resources Data Survey is modeled after the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS formerly HEGIS) and addressed details of expenditures, collections, programs, services, personnel and access as of June 30, 1997.

- The core organizational structures of the library, media, and learning resources programs in the college system continue to be the library, media centers, learning assistance and microcomputer centers and reprographics.

- The hours of access ranged from 51-77.50 hours per week with an average of 63.81 hours.

- Weekend hours were limited to 4-10 hours per day and often coincided with the final exam period. Fifty-five of the responding colleges were open on Saturday and nine were open on Sunday.

- The majority of items borrowed and loaned through interlibrary loan were from libraries outside of California higher education. The responding colleges requested to borrow 29,744 items, 34.74% of which were filled by community colleges. The colleges received 25,011 request for items to be lent. Forty two percent of items were from within the system and 53.92% were outside of the California higher education community.

- More than half the colleges participate in library consortiums and or cooperatives.

- In fiscal year, 1996-97, library and media facilities were used by 18,916,471 persons and the college system provided direct service to 12,778 persons from the community at large.

- Although more reference questions were answered, the standard deviation is significantly greater for on line searches than for directional and reference questions.

- The seating capacity for the responding colleges ranges from 55 to 1,788 for a total capacity of 30,906.

- Approximately 31,000 students participated in some form of information competency instruction offered by the Library and media programs. Collectively, this equates to 886 instructional sections

- Systemwide the library and media collection grew by 143,373 volumes and 2,457 periodical and or newspapers. This included 19,862 gift volumes, 123,511 purchased items.

- In fiscal year, 1996-97, college Library and Learning Resources Programs spent $8,226,681 dollars on informational materials or about $10.92 per FTES.

- College Library and Learning Resources Programs spent $8,226,681 dollars on informational materials

- In fiscal year, 1996-97, the total library and media personnel were 859.30, thirty five percent of who faculty, five percent were management and fifty-nine percent were classified employees.

FOREWORD

FOREWORD

The principal purpose of this first ever Library and Learning Resources Programs, Statistical Data Report, Fiscal Year 1996-97 is to convey timely, accurate and cooperative information to interested persons about the library and learning resources programs in the California Community Colleges. It is intended for use by those people interested in improving and or maintaining the quality of library, media, tutorial and learning assistance programs within the instructional program. An analysis of the data or its comparison with state and national standards or data is not reflected in this report as a five-year report with this focus was presented in the summer of 1997 to the Board of Governors.

The tables in the Statistical Report were prepared from the Library and Learning Resources Decision Support System. This computer-based system was designed and maintained by the Educational Services and Economic Development Division of the Chancellor's Office, California Community Colleges and provides a capability to present information which would otherwise be unavailable or too costly. All statistical and financial information used in this publication originated at California's 106 community colleges in response to state and federal reporting requirements. The tables present the information most frequently referenced and used by the college system and others.

Thanks are extended to all that assisted in the production of this Statistical Report. Comments and suggestions about the report or the Decision Support System may be addressed to: Carolyn F. Norman, Coordinator, Library and Learning Resources Programs. California Community Colleges, 1102 Q Street, Sacramento, California 95814.

We further encourage you to use any part of this report for program review, accreditation, grantsmanship or policy development. We hope that you find the Library and Learning Resources Programs, Statistical Data Report, Fiscal Year, 1996-97 informative and useful.

Sincerely,
Dr. Victoria Morrow
Vice Chancellor, Educational Services and Economic Development Division

INTRODUCTION

INTRODUCTION

The Library and Learning Resources Programs, Statistical Data Report, Fiscal Year, 1996-97 is based on data from the 1996-97 Annual Library and Learning Resources Data Survey. The Annual Data Survey is the Chancellor's Office vehicle for collecting data from and about the library and learning resources program in the college system. Section 55841 of the California Code of Regulations (Title 5) states that the governing board of a district shall on or before August 31st, in each year, report to the community college Board of Governors on the conditions of the libraries, for the year ending June 30th preceding.

The Annual Data Survey directly supports a number of objectives stated in the Basic Agenda of the California Community Colleges and the goals of the college systems library and learning resources programs. These include:

The tables in this publication summarize library and learning resources personnel, operating expenditures, collections, programs, services, and access for the responding colleges as of June 30, 1997.

The Annual Library and Learning Resources Data Survey has been carried out by the Educational Services and Economic Development Division of the Chancellor's Office since 1990. Although there have been changes in the form over the years, the series is generally considered to be continuous.

Issue

This item summarizes the findings of a study of the operations of California Community Colleges Library and Learning Resources Programs from 1988 through 1995.

Background

The study was undertaken to determine the ability of the college system to provide its students and faculty, Library and Learning Resources Programs and Services, sufficient in quality, depth, and diversity to support each college's educational programs. The full report (California Community Colleges Library and Learning Resources Programs: A Study of the System's Library and Learning Resources Programs: 1988-89 to 1994-95), from which this summary is taken, is separately bound. Because of its size, copies will be mailed to every community college library and depository. They will be available at the Board meeting, or you may call Carolyn Norman at (916) 322-6290 and request a copy.

There have been several previous efforts to document the status of library and learning resources programs and services within the California Community Colleges. Two of the most pertinent outcomes are described below:

- The California Legislature commissioned the California Research Bureau to assess California Community College library acquisition needs over the next ten years. The bureau produced: California Community College Library Acquisition Needs: 1995-2005: A Study Prepared Pursuant to Supplemental Report Language, Item 6120-011-001, Budget Act of 1995-96 (January 1996). That report identified significant deficiencies in library holdings and suggested alternative funding strategies that might correct the situation. Report findings were presented to the Committee on Educational Policy on March 13, 1996.

- At the same meeting, staff presented "Information Competency in the California Community Colleges: A Status Report." That report presented data and identified trends pointing to the need to develop curricular applications within the California Community Colleges that would enhance student information gathering and processing competencies.

As a consequence of the information presented to the Committee on Educational Policy in March 1996, Chancellor's Office staff was requested to develop a strategic work plan that would integrate the recommendations from these two reports and incorporate the uses of technology, wherever appropriate. Since then, staff has drafted a work plan in coordination with the Chancellor's Office Library and Learning Resources Program Advisory Committee. That draft is currently under review.

On November 13, 1996, a presentation was made to the Committee on Educational Policy which provided a preliminary overview of the current report. In response, committee members requested that a summary report be drafted for presentation to the full Board and that staff further explore avenues to utilize the findings from the study in subsequent policy development through the consultation process. Committee members expressed interest in the adoption of Board policy based on the findings and the possible pursuit of direct legislative initiatives, where appropriate.

During the final stages of development, staff has solicited input from various constituent groups to strengthen the final report. Library and learning resources personnel employed at each of the 106 colleges were asked to provide feedback. The report was also reviewed by the Advisory Committee, Library and Learning Resources Programs, the Council of Chief Librarians, the Learning Resources Association of the California Community Colleges, and the Association of California College Tutorial and Learning Assistance.

Analysis

The principal objective of the study was to provide a systemwide perspective on the ability of the college system to provide its students and faculty, Library and Learning Resources Programs and Services, sufficient in quality, depth, and diversity to support each college's educational programs. The scope of the study was guided by the standards, rules, and regulations stated in the California Education Code, Sections 78100 and 78101, the California Code of Regulations, Title 5, Sections 58720 and 55841, and various standards on good practice as adopted by the American Library Association, the Association of Educational Communications Technology, and the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

1. Methodology

The study covers a seven-year period from 1988-89 through 1994-95, with 1988-89 as the baseline year. The primary data sources for the study include: the Annual Library and Learning Resources Data Survey, the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS), the Instructional Equipment and Library Materials certification process, information industry data, and library and learning resources professional organizations in California. Data were also extracted from Chancellor's Office and other federal and state sources.

The study was designed to analyze key library and learning resources programs and services data to determine trends within the system that bear on maintenance of academic standards and their relationships to changing information industry standards. The intent is to determine the impact that the level of library expenditures has upon student learning, access to educational opportunities, and quality of instruction and service.

2. Findings

Because the findings of the survey are quite extensive, only the major highlights are included in this item. The full report will be made available for public review at each community college library and will be used to inform the policy development process through consultation. Key findings include the following:

- The core organizational structures of the library and learning resources programs in the college system include: the library, media centers (90 percent), learning assistance centers (56 percent), and computer centers (49 percent).

Library and learning resources personnel is insufficient according to state and national standards or good practice.

- The decline of library and learning resources faculty and classified personnel is almost equivalent to the student FTES increase. Library and learning resources faculty declined by 20 percent, classified by 42 percent, while student FTES increased by 68 percent.

- The faculty work load, which is measured in FTES, is 49 percent below the national standard for library faculty and 77 percent for media faculty.

- Significant and continuing declines in all categories of library and learning resources personnel, as depicted by the data, reveal that the colleges do not have sufficient and qualified faculty and support staff to implement the services for which the library and learning resources program is responsible and to provide appropriate support to the users (student and faculty) of information and learning resources programs.

College library and learning resources do not have a sufficient and consistent financial base.

- All of the responding college library and learning resources programs did not receive budget allocations that equal the state standard of three percent of the colleges' general fund budget, or the six percent as stated in national standards.
- Annually, since 1987-88, college libraries have received slightly more than ten percent of the funds allocated to the Instructional Equipment and Libraries Materials Program.

College library and learning resources collections are deficient.

- Information and learning resources collections in the colleges have experienced a five percent annual decline over the life of this seven year study period.
- As of May 1995, only 14 percent of the college libraries had or were in the process of getting Internet connections.
- Measured in terms of national standards, eighty-seven percent of the reporting campuses showed net collection deficits in 1993-94 (CRB, 1996).
- Twenty-three percent more libraries than in 1988-89 have acquired on-line catalogs for a total of 72 colleges (68.6 percent of the system); however, only 37.5 percent of that number have dial-in numbers to reach on-line catalogs.

Access to programs and services

- Students and faculty recognize the need for information competency.
- Participation in some form of information competency development is evident throughout the colleges. Student completion rates for courses offered through the library is two times higher than that for courses offered without library support.
- The hours of library and learning resources operation, the availability of personnel to provide reference assistance, and physical plant access to students and faculty have decreased significantly.
- Only 21.9 percent of college libraries reported membership in electronic consortiums, while 61 percent participate in consortiums.

3. Summary

This study documents the need to develop more effective and accountable planning processes and policies to ensure that library and learning programs contribute to the overall success of the colleges. The development of such approaches is important as the colleges continue to engage in strategic planning, innovative decision making, and in the management of change.

At a time when the information revolution requires that students learn to retrieve and manipulate increasing amounts of information, the collections, access to new and emerging technologies, and the level of personnel dedicated to the system's library and learning resources programs are insufficient to support the courses, programs, and degrees offered. Although library and learning resources constituencies have developed various strategies to cope with both local and statewide deficiencies, as a whole, these strategies have not been institutionalized nor do they provide equality of access to needed resources.

Conclusion

As requested by committee members, staff will review the findings of this study within the established consultation process. It is expected that a set of recommendations for Board action will result.

TECHNICAL NOTES

Technical Notes

The data was gathered by the Chancellor's Office in accordance with the California Code of Regulations, Title 5, Section 55841 which mandates that an annual report on the condition of libraries, including statistical information, shall be submitted by each district to the Chancellor's Office.

The Chancellor's Office distributes a survey to each college annually, to obtain the material for a comparative study of library conditions in the state. The survey instrument was modeled after similar survey instruments, including the U.S. Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data Survey (IPEDS) instrument.

A relational file manager program was selected as the tool to access, store and manipulate the data. A set of cohorts of college library and learning resources programs was identified to assess program accountability, impact and effectiveness. A legend of cohort acronyms follows this page.

Eighty-seven colleges responded to the survey. Non respondents were contacted by letter and follow-up telephone calls.

Methodology

Instrumentation and Procedures

The Library and Learning Resources Annual Data Survey instrument was modeled after the U.S. Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data Survey (IPEDS). The survey addresses details of expenditures, collections, programs, services, personnel and access as of June 30 of each academic year.

The information enables the Chancellor's Office to report on the condition of the California Community College's libraries, as per Section 55841 of the California Code of Regulations (Title V) and to provide for local and systemwide comparison and planning. The survey enables the following objectives:

- a uniform data collection instrument for the California Community Colleges;
- the continuous development of a database for local and statewide comparison and systemwide planning;
- the ability of the Chancellor's Office to assess California Community College Library and Learning Resources Programs in comparison to nationally recognized standards; and
- to demonstrate the diversity of resources, programs and services provided by California Community Colleges.

Based on these objectives, the survey instrument was further organized along seven components including:

A. General I College Information
B. General Library and Learning Resources Program Information
C. Operating Expenditures for Fiscal Year 1999-2000
D. Personnel
E. Services
F. Growth and Holding of Collection

Scope

The Annual Library and Learning Resources Program Data Survey is distributed annually in the fall to the Library Deans and Directors of the 106 California Community Colleges with a requested return within two months.

_Data Collection and Analysis_
The Annual Library and Learning Resources Program Data are collected and processed by the Library and Learning Resources Program within the Chancellor's Office, California Community Colleges. A relational file manager program, Nutshell Plus II, was selected as the tool to access, store, and manipulate the data.

At this time data edits and verifications are made on the appearance of inconsistency, summations and range checks. In additional, no efforts are made to impute data.

There are approximately 1000 data elements in the Annual Library and Learning Resources Program Database. Sixty report formats have been developed from this database. The database also includes information acquired from other data sources within the Chancellor's Office, California Community Colleges and from the California Postsecondary Education Institution (CPEC). Based on the mission and goals of the Library and Learning Resources Program, the college system, information industry trends, expressed needs and a review of the literature, the data was organized into twenty-five layouts/report formats for review. This publication includes eleven reports covering collection, personnel, expenditures and programs and services. The formats are depicted in Table 1. The information in each format is analyzed alphabetically by college, by demographics, student FTES and geographical region. Table 2 is a key to the demographic abbreviations used in the report.

ANNUAL DATA SURVEY

Fiscal Year 1996-97

Completing Instructions

Please read the instructions carefully before completing this survey. Report data ONLY for your institution. When complete, make a copy for your files and mail the signed original to Carolyn F. Norman at the address on the front cover of the Annual Data Survey by Friday, April 3, 1998.

Reporting Dates

All libraries/media centers programs are requested to report, using the forms, program statistics as of June 30, 1997. Any footnotes should be attached separately to the forms.

Need for Estimates

Do not leave any items blank. Enter "0" if the appropriate figure for an item is zero or "none." Do not enter a negative value to indicate a net loss in a category; rather, enter "0" as indicating no growth.

If an exact figure is not available for a particular item, but the amount is known to be greater than zero, enter an estimate of the amount. Indicate the estimated amount by placing it in parentheses ( ). Estimates are important if exact data are not available because items left blank may be misinterpreted and result in errors in data processing operations.

Contact for Questions

If there are any questions about this survey, contact Carolyn F. Norman at (916) 322-6290.

B. General Library and Learning Resources Programs Information

1. Components

a.-g. Indicate the components of your institution's Library and Learning Resources Programs.

2. Physical Plant

Appendix B contains figures your district's business manager or facilities planner has reported to the Chancellor's Office. Verify these figures and report changes to your district's business manager or facilities planner.

Use the definitions below to respond to items a. and b.

Net assignable area—Include only space dedicated for library and media operations, regardless of budget source. Break this down by program (e.g., library, media).

Seating capacity—Count seats actually available for library and media center patrons for individual use—including study carrels. (Exclude chairs used for purposes unrelated to library use, such as classroom lecture.)

Number of branch libraries or media services—Report the number of branch libraries at your institution that were open all or part of fiscal year 1996-97. (Do not count the Main or Central Library or Media Center.) Branch libraries are auxiliary units that have all of the following: (1) separate quarters, (2) a permanent basic collection of resources, (3) a permanent staff, and (4) a regular schedule for opening to the public. They are, however, administered from a central unit and are part of an institution with the same CDS code as the main library or media center.

3. Communications and Networks

a. Telephone Numbers. Indicate the communications vehicles by which you may be contacted. Example of communication:

Dataphone. A dataphone is a telephone and modem associated with voice grade line which permits direct transmission of alpha and numeric data between teletypes, computer terminals, computers and other such devices.

b. Electronic Mail

- c. Bibliographic Services
- d. Cooperatives, consortia or network participation
- e. Interlibrary loan policy
- f. Charges/Fees for interlibrary loans
- g. Friends Group

C. Operating Expenditures for Fiscal Year 1996-97

This section includes standard operating expenditures, and selected special expenditures. The standard operating expenditures are those line-items that appear in most Library and Learning Resources Programs budgets. Selected special expenditures include expenditures that may appear in different places on different Library and Learning Resources Programs budgets. (For example, on-line database searching may be considered collection expenditures in some libraries. In others, it may be reported under "other operating expenditures.")

Expenditures

Report the funds expended from the Library and Learning Resources Programs budget in fiscal year 1996-97 regardless of whether the funds have been received from federal, State, or other resources. Expenditures should be reported for the 13-month period that corresponds to your institution's fiscal year between the calendar period July 1, 1996 June 30, 1997. Report all expenditures in whole dollars.

1. Salaries and Benefits

a.-c. Report expenditures for full- and part-time salaries and wages before deductions, but exclude fringe benefits provided by your institution for all regular Library and Media Personnel. Use Learning Resources employees if you have a budget line item for learning resources programs and are not able to distinguish between library and media programs. Exclude contributed services, maintenance and custodial staff, and students serving on an hourly basis.

d. Fringe Benefits—Report the sum of all fringe benefits for all Library and LLRP staff whose salaries and wages are shown on C.1.a., b., and c. Fringe benefits are defined as cash contributions in the form of supplementary or deferred compensation other than salary. The employee's contribution should be excluded when determining the dollar value of fringe benefits. Fringe benefits include: retirement plans, medical plans, guaranteed disability income protection plans, tuition plans, housing plans, social security taxes, unemployment compensation plans, group life insurance plans, workers' compensation, and other benefits in-kind with cash options. If these benefits are not paid from the Library and LLRP budget, please enter zero.

2. Collection

a. Print Materials—All materials consisting primarily of words and usually produced by making an impression with ink on paper. Included in this category are materials that do not require magnification books, government documents, Braille materials, ephemeral print materials, and the like. Excludes serial subscriptions and microforms.

(1) Books. Nonperiodical printed publications bound in hard or soft covers, or in loose-leaf format, of at least 49 pages, exclusive of the cover pages, or a juvenile nonperiodical publication of any length bound in hard or soft cover.

Serials. Publications issued in successive parts, usually at regular intervals, and as a rule, intended to be continued indefinitely. Serials include annuals (reports, yearbooks, etc.), memoirs, proceedings, and transactions of societies; they may include monographic and publishers' series.

(2) Periodical. A publication in any medium intended to appear indefinitely at regular or stated intervals, generally more frequently than annually. Individual issues are numbered consecutively or dated and normally contain separate articles, stories, or other writings. Does not include newspapers disseminating general news, and the proceedings, papers, or other publications of corporate bodies primarily related to their meetings.

Newspapers. Those serials that are designed mainly to be a primary source of written information on current events. They may also include articles as well as illustrations, advertisements, legal notices, and vital statistics. Newspapers appear with a masthead and are usually printed on newsprint without a cover.

(3) Pamphlets. A complete, unbound publication of generally less than 80 pages, stitched or stapled together. Items usually are not fully cataloged.

(4) Microforms. Photographic reproductions of textual, tabular, or graphic materials reduced in size so that they can be used only with magnification. The two main types of microforms are microreproductions on transparent material (roll microfilm, aperture cards, microfiche, and ultrafiche) and reproductions on opaque materials. Serial subscriptions are not included in this category.

(5) Other. Report any expenditures for other print collection materials not placed in lines 2.a.(1) through (4).

(6) Total of lines 2.a.(1) through (5).

b. Audio/Visuals—Materials displayed by visual projection or magnification or through sound reproduction, or both, including graphic materials, audio materials, motion pictures, video materials, and special visual materials such as cartographic and three-dimensional materials.

(1) Audio recordings, tapes, etc. Materials on which sounds (only) are stored (recorded) and that can be reproduced (played back) mechanically, electronically, or both. These materials include audio-cassettes, audio-cartridges, audio-disks, audio-reels, talking books, and other sound recordings.

(2) Films. Materials with or without recorded sound, bearing a sequence of images that create the illusion of movement when projected in rapid succession (usually 18 or 24 frames per second). Films are produced in a variety of sizes (8, super 8, 16, 35, 55, and 70mm) and a variety of formats (cartridge, cassette, loop, and reel).

Videos. Materials on which both pictures and sound are recorded. Electronic playback reproduces both pictures and sounds using a television receiver or monitor.

(3) Other. Report any expenditures for other print collection materials not placed in lines 2.b.(1) through (2)

(4) Total of lines 2.b.(1) through (3).

c. Machine-readable Materials—Report expenditures for both machine-readable data files and microcomputer applications software. Machine-readable data files are data and data files that exist in media such as CD-ROMs, magnetic tape, and magnetic disks that are designed to be processed by a computer or other machine. Examples are U.S. Census data tapes and reference tools on CD-ROM, tape, or disk. This excludes the bibliographic records used to manage the collection and the physical components or a computer (hardware). Microcomputer software contains instructions that direct the computer to perform some action. Examples are dBase 4, Lotus, and Word Perfect. Do not include microcomputer software used only by library staff.

(1) Computer Software. Count software available for use by patrons. Programs, procedures, and associated documentation that instruct the computer to perform certain tasks. The physical components of a computer (hardware) are not included in this category.

(2) CD-ROM.

(3) Other. Report any expenditures for other audio/visual collection materials not placed in lines 2.c.(1) and (2).

(4) Total of lines 2.c.(1) through (3).

d. Equipment—Report expenditures for all equipment purchased during the 1994-95 fiscal year for support of the Library component on line d.(1), for the Media component on line d.(2) and line d.(3) for programs with a line item budget for learning resources programs.

(1) Total of lines 2.d.(1) through (3).

Includes, but is not limited to, equipment for microforms, audio/visuals, and computer-related software. Exclude capital outlay for equipping a new building or addition.

3. Other Operating Expenditures

Report expenditures for travel, rental, leases, insurance, postage and freight, printing, replacement of equipment and furnishings, supplies and membership costs, and students working on an hourly basis. Exclude expenditures for utilities, plant maintenance and operation, and capital outlay.

4. Total Operating Expenditures

Report the sum of Section C.

5. Selected Special Expenditures

a. Bibliographic Utilities (contracted computer services)—Report any expenditures related to purchased library and learning resources programs services for your program on computers by a computerized library network, computerized cooperative library organization, or by a commercial organization providing library services. Telecommunications costs should be included. Automated Library and Learning Resources Programs Systems are excluded from this section.

b. On-line Database Services (DIALOG, BRS, etc.)—Report any expenditures from the library and learning resources program budget for all reference transactions in which the source utilized is one or more databases searched on-line by computer. Included are associated telecommunications costs if they are not billed separately.

c. Automated Library and Learning Resources Programs Systems—Report any expenditures related to the purchase of computer hardware, software, and contracted services related directly to library automation.

d. Capital Outlay—Expenditures for site acquisition, working drawings, construction, and equipment associated with new construction or remodeling.

e. Binding/Rebinding—Report only expenditures paid to commercial binderies for all binding and rebinding of books and periodicals during the 1993-94 fiscal year. Do not allocate wages, materials, etc., for binding.

f. Total of lines 5.a. through e.

D. Personnel

Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) Employees

Report the sum of the number of full-time employees plus the number of full-time equivalent of part-time employees for each of the categories indicated. To compute full-time equivalents of part-time employees, take the number of hours worked by a part-time employee and divide it by the number of hours considered by the reporting Library and LRP to be a full-time work week in the category. For example, a normal work week for administrators is 40 hours; for a professional, 35 hours; and for clerical, 40 hours (e.g., 60 hours per week of part-time work divided by 40 hours per full-time week equals 1.5 FTE). The following computation illustrates this:

1 administrator at 40 hrs. each = 1.0
3 librarians at 35 hrs. each = 3.0
2 librarians at 20 hrs. each = 1.1
3 clerks at 37.5 hrs. each = 3.0
1 clerk at 20 hrs./wk. = 0.5
1 clerk at 30 hrs./wk. = 0.8
Total LRC Staff (FTEs) = 9.4

1. Number of Certificated Management Positions (FTE)

Report the number of persons identified as certificated management by the institution and whose primary administrative duties are for the library or media services. Use line c. if your program is called a learning resources program and has a single line-item budget for such. Report the total for this category on line d.

2. Number of Certificated Supervisory Positions (FTE)

Same as for management—except substitute supervisory for management and report the total for this category on line d.

3. Number of Certificated Faculty Positions (FTE)

Report the number of employees whose assignment is instruction in the Library or Media Services. Persons in this category have professional training and knowledge in the theoretical or scientific aspect of library information retrieval work, or both, as distinct from its mechanical or clerical aspect. Include unfilled positions if search is currently underway. Report the total for this category on line d.

4. Number of Classified Positions (FTE)

The total FTE employees whose primary assignment is not certificated faculty, management, or supervisor within the Library or Media Services. Exclude maintenance and custodial staff. Report the total for this category on line d.

5. Student Assistant Hours (FTE) (from all funding sources)

To compute full-time equivalents of student assistants, take the total number of hours worked by students for the year and divide it by 1,600. This is considered to be a full-time work year in this category.

a. (1) College-funded. Expenditures for student assistants charged to library from general fund. Count only library-managed funds. In the case of work study, count only the share that comes from library-managed funds.

(2) Work Study, EOPS, etc. Expenditures for student assistants, from non-library or general fund sources. Count any funds provided from outside library-managed funds (e.g., the federal share of work study (80%); campuses generally provide the matching share (20%) of work study). Include self-sustaining programs such as summer session funding.

(3) Report the subtotal for this category on line 3.

b. Use the definitions above, substitute media services for library.

c. Report the totals of lines 5.a.3. and b.3. on line c.

6. Total FTE Positions (excluding students)

Record the sum total of each category (lines 1.d., 2.d., 3.d., and 4.d.) in this section.

E. Services

1. Reference Assistance (Annual)

a. Reference Questions (Annual)—A reference transaction is an information contact that involves the use, recommendation, interpretation, or instruction in the use of one or more information sources, or knowledge of such sources, by a member of the reference/information staff. Information sources include:

(1) print and non-print materials;
(2) library bibliographic records, excluding circulation records;
(3) other libraries and institutions; and
(4) persons both inside and outside the library.

A question answered through utilization of information gained from previous consultation of such sources is considered a reference transaction even if the source is not consulted again.

b. Directional Questions (Annual)—A directional transaction is an information contact that facilitates the use of the library in which the contact occurs, and that may involve the use of sources describing that library, such as schedules, floor plans, handbooks, and policy statements. Examples of directional transactions are:

(1) directions, for locating facilities such as restrooms, carrels, and telephones;
(2) directions for locating library staff, users;
(3) directions for locating materials for which the user has a call number;
(4) supplying materials such as paper and pencils; and
(5) assisting users with the operation of machines.

c. On-line Database Searches (Annual)—This is the number of reference transaction searches in which the source utilized is one or more databases searched online by a computer. This is a subcategory of Reference Questions. Do not report here the number of patrons for whom searches are done.

2. Circulation

a. Library

(1) Items checked out. A recorded circulation of monographs, reference books, and bound periodical collections. Includes lending transactions (including recorded renewals) for which a loan record is created for use outside of books, reference books, and bound periodicals. Does not include unbound periodicals or other non-book or non-print materials. Do not count renewals as a separate circulation unless either a new record is created or the old record is changed to show a new due date. Do not base this figure on the number discharged, or the number reshelved. Do count locational charges within the building at the time they are made if a loan record is created.

(a) Books. Use definition established in Section 2.

(b) Reserve circulation: Count all reserve loans, including non-book materials if lent from the reserve desk. Count also photocopied materials lent, and personal copies lent.

(c) Other. Includes any loan transaction for which a loan record is made, even though material is used within the building. If this test is met, it may include microfilm, texts, unbound periodicals, etc. Do not count routings of a periodical unless a loan record is made.

(d) Subtotal of circulation for items checked out.

(2) Total in-house use. The total number of materials utilized in the library, but not checked out. These materials include references books, periodicals, book stock, and all other print materials that are used within the library.

(3) Report the sum total of library circulation (lines E.2.a.(1)(d) and (2)) on line 3.

b. Media Services

(1) Audio/Visual Software. Any transaction for which a loan record is created for such non-print times as video cassettes, slides, art prints, etc., even if use is within the building.

(2) Microcomputer Software. Count any transaction for which a loan record is created, even if use is within the building.

(3) Equipment. Equipment that is used to facilitate the use, production, reproduction, transmission, and display of instructional materials within or outside of the facility. Included in this category are items such as video cassette players, audio consuls, computer terminals, slide projectors, etc.

(4) Report the total of Media Services (line 2.b.)

3. InterLibrary Lending (ILL) and Borrowing

Transaction in which library materials or copies of the materials are made available by one library to another upon request.

An ILL request is written (e.g., an ALA form; a typed OnTyme or telefaxed form, or a transcribed request from a recorded phone call) or keyed (e.g., OCLC terminal).

Count a single photocopy-filled request as one item, regardless of the number of pages.

4. Lectures/Orientations

   a. Number of orientation tours or lectures—Report the total number offered for the year.

   b. Number of persons participating in lectures/orientations—Indicate the number of persons who participated for the year indicated.

   c. Bibliographic Instruction—Information service to a group that is designed to teach library users how to locate information efficiently.

      (1) Credit Courses—L&LRP. Bibliographic instruction courses offered by your institution under the auspices of the Library and Learning Resources Program.

         (a) Indicate the number of credit courses.

         (b) Indicate the number of sections.

         (c) Indicate the number of students who completed the courses and sections.

         (d) Indicate whether the average daily attendance (ADA) generated by these courses and sections was attributed to the Library and Learning Resources Program.

      (2) Credit Courses-Non-L&LRP. Bibliographic instruction courses offered by your institution that are taught by librarians, but are not under the auspices of the Library and Learning Resources Program.

         (a) Indicate the number of credit courses.

         (b) Indicate the number of sections.

         (c) Indicate the number of students who completed the courses and sections.

         (d) Indicate whether the average daily attendance (ADA) generated by these courses and sections was attributed to the Library and Learning Resources Program.

5. Hours Open (Weekly)—Academic Year

   a. Library—Considered both main library and branches using the following method. If a library is open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, it should report 40 hours per week. If several of its branches are also open during those hours, the figure remains 40 hours. Should Branch A also be open one evening from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., the total hours that users can find service becomes 42. If Branch B is open the same hours on the same evening, the total remains 42, but if it is open two hours on another evening, or from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. on the evening when Branch A is open later, the total becomes 44 hours during which users can find service.

   b. Media Services—Use the definition above; substitute media for library to indicate hours of media service.

   c. Reference Desk Services—Use the reference desk schedule to report this (e.g., two people staffing one reference desk, 4 hours equals 8 hours of reference service).

6. Summer Hours (Weekly)—if different from Academic Year

   Several colleges had different hours for summer operations so an additional section has been added for this category. Use this section only if your summer hours are different from the academic year.

7. Number of Persons Using Facility (Annual)

   Report the total number of persons entering the specified program area identified. This number should be cumulative for the year and should include all persons entering the library and learning resources facilities including persons attending activities and meetings, and those requiring no staff services.

8. Number of Community Borrowers Registered Annually

   Those persons not directly associated with your institution or district either as a employee or student.

F. Growth and Holding of Collection (Items added during fiscal year 1996-97)

This is not merely the figures for the last fiscal year plus current additions. It is the net collection size on June 30, after considering additions, withdrawals, and losses. The definitions under Other Operating Expenditures also apply here. However, if the library or media center does not maintain a separate count for some categories after they have been added to the collection, please annotate the category.

Do not count materials in more than one category. (For example, periodicals in microform are to be counted under microforms; periodicals in non-microform are to be counted as periodical publications when added. Anything that is a publication is counted either as microform or government publication regardless of whether acquisition was from budgeted funds or not.) Report net, not gross, additions for categories.

If a net reduction was experienced in a category, enter zero. Do not enter a negative value.

A volume is a physical unit of any printed, typewritten, mimeographed, or processed work contained in one binding or portfolio, hardbound or paperbound, that has use. This includes government publications if they are cataloged in the regular collections. Exclude state texts (K-12). Exclude volumes received but not cataloged. Include all volumes cataloged and added to the collections in the report year regardless of when purchased or received, except juvenile works and textbooks. Count a serial volume received in parts when bound and added (if bound in two volumes, count as two). If not to be bound, count each piece. Loose-leaf services: count each binder as one volume. Count bound periodicals, even if not cataloged or classified.

Count all items added to the collection during that fiscal year (by purchase). Include items that have been purchased with state or federal funds.

and

Bound periodicals added to the collection during that fiscal year. A periodical is a subset of serials, distinguished by intended indefinite publication, and an intended regular periodicity of publication that is more frequent than once a year, and typically containing a variety of articles in each issue. Include volumes added via state printer, in-house binding, bound as purchased, and bound volumes acquired as gifts. Exclude rebinding.
